Statement of Bishop Ronald A. Hicks of the Diocese of Joliet on the U.S. Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe v. Wade

The U.S. Supreme Court decision issued today in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization overturns the 1973 Roe v. Wade ruling that legalized abortion across the country. Today's decision is an answer to decades of prayer and upholds the protection of the most innocent of all human life – the child in the mother's womb – which has long been a tenet of Catholic social teaching. I celebrate this ruling yet mourn the fact that here, in our home state of Illinois, it will have no immediate impact given the state's 2019 enshrinement into law of abortion as a misguided fundamental right. Perhaps the court's ruling and recent public conversations, coupled with our own prayers, will stir within the hearts, minds and souls of our elected political leaders a greater respect for the beauty and dignity of human life from conception to natural death. I ask that you join me in earnest and fervent prayer for not only the conversion of those in civic leadership, but for those in our own homes, families and communities who need the light of Christ to see clearly how all are made in the image and likeness of God.

I also ask that you support Walking with Moms in Need, an initiative of the U.S. bishops to aid and encourage women facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies. Throughout his papacy, Pope Francis has urged us to embrace the "culture of encounter" by pausing, meeting with, and accompanying those in need on their journey. What is a more promising example of such an encounter than expectant and new moms and their babies?

Finally, I implore all to receive today's ruling with peace toward their neighbors and animus toward none. We are all called to see the face of God in our neighbor, regardless of any strong disagreements on issues as significant as the sanctity of life. As a missionary people seeking to draw others into an encounter with the risen Lord, how we react to the court's ruling or any other matter of political, moral or social concern can leave a lasting impression upon others as to what it means to follow Christ. We must always speak the truth in charity and be willing to accompany one another in patience, humility and gentleness. Through the peace we extend others, the goodness of our God will surely shine through.

ROSARY FOR LIFE

Come pray the Pro-Life Rosary at Corpus Christi on Tuesday mornings in the church after the 9:00 am Mass.

Thank You!

Children of Mary would like to express our sincere gratitude to the Knights of Columbus here at Corpus Christi on their recent monetary donation. Our special needs social group is based out of the church for the last 13 years. This group meets every Friday and Saturday to nurture their gifts and talents by helping in the community, working on vital social and fine/gross motor skills, and expressing themselves through structured dance/movement classes. Many of these participants cannot afford contributing to the expenses to run this program, so our Knights have been vital in this important ministry. Visit us on childrenofmarycc.org.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL “My Flesh for The Life of The World” began on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, June 19th . AN EXCITING JOURNEY AHEAD Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith— his Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Watch the video: <https://youtu.be/msecW5Vmny8> to learn more about the exciting journey ahead and how you can be a part of it! Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal. Please join us in prayer for the renewal and healing of the United States as we answer this historic call to revival. For more information click on the link: National Eucharistic Revival: A Grassroots Response to God’s Invitation

In early June, the two nations in which the Knights of Columbus was first established both celebrate their independence: Canada on July 1st (“Canadian Day”) and the United States on July 4th (“Independence Day”).

Independence days are typically celebrated with public displays of patriotism, including parades, picnics, fireworks displays and speeches at civic events. Members of the Patriotic Degree of the Knights of Columbus – the Fourth Degree – will often be found turning out in uniform at these ceremonies. Patriotism has been one of the four principles of the Knights of Columbus since the Fourth Degree was established in 1900, with a ceremony on February 22. Each of the major jurisdictions of the Order has its own version of the Fourth Degree Ceremony. Each focuses on the distinctive history of Catholicism and the Knights in that particular country, which can be explored in the latest book Knights of Columbus: An Illustrated History.

In 2005, not long before he died, St. John Paul II published what was to be his last book, Memory and Identity: Conversations at the Dawn of a Millennium. He discusses good and evil, church and state, freedom and democracy, and the Communist and Nazi totalitarianism which produced so much human tragedy during the 20th century...

For members of the Knights of Columbus, for whom faith and patriotism go hand in hand, St. John Paul II’s [words are] a concise description of the relationship between the two: the Fourth Commandment, which tells us to honor our father and mother, obliges us to honor our homeland as well [as our elders]...

“Patriotism is a love for everything to do with our native land: its history, its traditions, its language, its natural features. It is a love which extends also to the work of our compatriots and the fruits of their genius [e.g., contributions of thought, word and deed].”
