Congratulations on your Ordination, Deacon Phil!

Wishing you God's abundant graces and blessings in your ministry.

-Fr. Mark, Deacons Tom, Bill and Andrew, staff, and your parish family

My Name is Phil Leonard and my bride Chris and I have been parishioners at Corpus Christi since 1992. We have been married 37 years and have three wonderful children and 2 amazing grandsons. My faith journey can best be described by the Beatles song, The Long and Winding Road. Chris and I were both born into the faith and although Chris remained in the Catholic Tradition, I veered down the evangelical road in my teenage years and then half-heartedly came back to the Church in my 20's. After we began our family, we felt the need for our children to be catechized – to be brought up in the Church.

Little did I know – God had bigger plans. Through my children I discovered God was actually calling me back to the Church. I was invited by the Holy Spirit to pray the rosary – to Jesus through Mary. Thus, the winding road begins to straighten out. There are so many faith-filled people throughout the history of Corpus Christi Church who played a part in my journey to the Diaconate. Fr. Chuck Gemski, the founding Pastor, who invited me to be part of a welcoming community of faith-filled people. Deacon Tom who invited me into a genuine friendship that deepened my faith and led to my Confirmation at the age of 40 in the presence of my Mom and with Chris as my sponsor. Fr. Bob Hoffenkamp who invited me to go deeper in my relationship with the Church by heading up the Lend-A-Hand ministry to aid the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Mark Herwaldt, our former Youth Ministry Director, who invited me to go out into the community to share not only my skills and talents as a handyman but to share my faith, witness, and compassion. Fr. Mark who not only continues Corpus Christi's legacy of a welcoming community and outreach, which extends beyond our borders, but also brings the Church's orthodoxy to life within the Mass with passion and faithfulness. Throughout my Diaconate formation, Fr. Mark has been gracious in sharing his knowledge and providing opportunities for me to serve the Church. Never underestimate the power of a simple invitation to prayer, conversation, friendship, compassion, mercy, and kindness You never know where the winding road will lead you.

For me, the winding road leads to the door of St. Raymond's Cathedral on August 20th, the feast day of St. Bernard of Clairvaux, where, by the grace of God, I will be ordained a deacon with Chris as my sponsor. I'm so grateful to the Corpus Christi community who has prayed for me and my family throughout my formation. I would not be here without you. Please continue to pray for Fr. Mark, Fr. Tony, our Deacons, our community, and our Church at large. It is only through prayer that we will continue to grow and find peace. I leave you with a quote I recently encountered by St. Bernard that I believe will guide me in my Diaconate Ministry – perhaps it will guide you too.

There are those who seek knowledge for the sake of knowledge;
that is curiosity.

There are those who seek knowledge to be known by others;
that is vanity.

There are those who seek knowledge in order to serve;
that is LOVE.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL “My Flesh for The Life of The World” began on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, June 19th.

AN EXCITING JOURNEY AHEAD

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith—his Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Watch the video: <https://youtu.be/msccW5Vmnny8> to learn more about the exciting journey ahead and how you can be a part of it! Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal. Please join us in prayer for the renewal and healing of the United States as we answer this historic call to revival. For more information click on the link:

Knights of Columbus Family time: Aug / Sep Recommended Books and Movies

3.1 MOVIE: Bella (Starring Eduardo Verastegui and Tammy Blanchard)

A charming pro-life and pro-family story that has been called a story within a story within a story. Key characters include, Jose, an international soccer star whose career comes to an end after an accidental tragedy, Nina, a struggling waitress, and Manny, the chef and owner of a Mexican restaurant.

3.2 MOVIE: The Jeweler’s Shop (Starring Burt Lancaster, Olivia Hussey, Daniel Olbrychski, and Ben Cross)

A mysterious jeweler sells wedding rings with implied wisdom. The story begins in pre-War Poland and introduces us to two young couples there and later a third young couple in post-War Canada. The mystery of love and marriage is explored through each relationship. The musical score for the movie is quite beautiful. The movie is based on a play by Pope John Paul II with the screenplay by Jeff Andrus.

3.3 BOOK: The Art of Praying – Romano Guardini

Guardini lays out the principles and methods of Christian prayer. He shows the “nuts and bolts of prayer”. Guardini is one of the all-time spiritual masters. Among special topics covered, he writes about the 5 words that gave St. Francis of Assisi an entire night’s contemplation and about a full range and dimension of issues or insights into prayer.

WITH JOY

August Monthly Update 2022

"The university is a clear-cut fulcrum with which to move the world. Change the University and you change the world."

—Dr. Charles Malik, former president of the United Nations General Assembly and Security Council.

You are such a gift to me! I am so excited to see how many lives will change this year because of your generosity! After two years at SEMO in Missouri, I have moved to the University of Wisconsin-Platteville. I'm excited to be closer to home and serve their growing community. My new team is in the photo in the corner! (L to R: Sonja, Brigid, Nate, Jared & me)

Thousands of freshmen are moving into dorms across the country to begin one of the most exciting times of their lives – their college years. Studies show the first few weeks are critical for reaching students. Many of the friendships students make during this time will continue throughout college.

For this reason, the first few weeks on campus are not "business as usual." Instead, my team and I and our student leaders will be putting in long hours on campus. We will be inviting students into authentic friendships with the hope of leading them to an encounter with Jesus Christ by:

- Playing sports on the campus lawn
- Hosting cookouts and bonfires

Every day we will begin by gathering as a team to pray for the conversion of the students we will meet that day. Join us! Will you please pray for the conversion of students at University of Wisconsin-Platteville?

Specifically, we are praying for:

- all of the students and missionaries transitioning to new campuses
- for many students to rise up to be leaders in our community

Because you care, many students will have the opportunity to experience the life-changing reality of Jesus Christ this year. As always, thank you for your prayers and support!

In Christ Jesus,

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

COVENANT RELATIONSHIP

The term “fair-weather friend” might need a technological-era updating. Perhaps “short attention span friend” would work. In our world of multiple communication platforms, it somehow has become increasingly easy to lose track of friends. We shouldn’t be surprised when we reach out and they’ve moved on due to our indifference. The God who is love and whose covenant is one-hundred percent about relationship is depicted in the same way by Jesus today. Hey God, remember us? There was that one time we were really in trouble and you helped out; well, we’re in trouble again. But we may find that God has moved on since we turned out to be only foul-weather friends. The covenant relationship has two parties: God and us. If that covenant relationship falls apart, and we’re no longer “friended” by God, it’s not because God failed as a friend. Keeping up the friendship and relationship with God is equally our responsibility.

FROM EAST TO WEST

With our modern understanding of the world and its various cultures and religions, it’s hard to grasp how shocking Isaiah’s words today would have been to those who first encountered them. After all, they were the people God called “Chosen.” It was easy for them to presume that after the sufferings of exile that God’s freeing redemption would be for them and them alone. Yet here is Isaiah saying that the saving hand of God will extend to all nations, even those of varying ways and languages. Perhaps most shocking to Isaiah’s initial audience would have been today’s final line: that God would take these outsiders and fugitives, elevating them to the priesthood, to include them in the descendants of one of Jacob’s sons, Levi. It’s not difficult to imagine that this sweeping vision of God’s mercy and love beyond the bounds of the Chosen People was met with resistance, much as similar messages are met with resistance today.

FROM NORTH AND SOUTH

Jesus shows himself to be firmly in Israel’s prophetic tradition, a true son of Isaiah today, as he proclaims a similar message. Those who had been chosen as disciples could not presume that merely keeping physical proximity with Jesus or remaining in his company gave them any real claim to call themselves true disciples. As important as table fellowship is in Luke’s Gospel, even eating and drinking with Jesus does not guarantee an eventual seat at the table of God’s reign. Even being a “pureblood” (a descendant of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) doesn’t make your final destination a sure thing. How the world has placed you into its categories—first or last—just might get scrambled too. It is those who follow Jesus through the “narrow gate” of discipleship, truly abiding by his example who are sure to find themselves reclining at table in the kingdom.

TODAY’S READINGS

Isaiah 66:18–21
Psalm 117:1, 2
Hebrews 12:5–7, 11–13
Luke 13:22–30

Strive to enter through the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter
but will not be strong enough.

Luke 13:24

Parish Mission Statement

*A Community of Christian believers
Who embrace the Word of God,
Who proclaim its message to all,
With a welcoming spirit
As prayerful and sacramental people
Empowered by unity,
Inspired by the Holy Spirit,
We extend ourselves
Seeking to recognize the needs of others
And responding with compassion by Gratefully sharing our blessings.
We gather as
THE BODY OF CHRIST
To celebrate and become a source of hope
And inspiration to all.*
