March 26, 2023 - Fifth Sunday of Lent

FIFTH SUNDAY OF Lent

MARCH 26, 2023

He cried out in a loud voice,
“Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:43

“I am the resurrection and the life”

“The Raising Of Lazarus” - a Rembrandt van Rijn etching from the year 1632 made an overwhelming impression on me from the moment I first saw it in the book that I found in the basement of my parents’ house. In the artist’s depiction of this famous scene, Lazarus is barely visible as his mind and soul seem only with difficulty to follow his body as it moves towards life. The dominating figure in the etching is Jesus standing over the grave with an extended hand. It is an expression of the power of Jesus as the Lord of life in his act of love and mercy. The people around him are not looking at Jesus but at Lazarus. This is not a surprise: if the blind man healed by Jesus from the story we read last Sunday professed: “It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind.” (J 9:31), what about an unheard-of miracle of raising someone from the dead?

Actually, this miracle was not a miracle but a sign - if we follow the theology of St. John. For John, Jesus’ miracles – and his works in general – are “signs”. These actions give us the intimations of the true identity of the one who does them, and as a consequence, they aim to enkindle faith. For this reason, this story as well as the one from last Sunday (the healing of the blind man) and also others, has been presented from ancient Christian times to catechumens – those who wanted to discover who Jesus is in preparation for their baptism. The rising of Lazarus is the last “sign”, out of seven in John’s Gospel, that Jesus works in order to manifest the glory of the Father and announce his personal glorification at his Passover, his passion and resurrection. The resurrection is - as some indicate - the ultimate, the greatest and the final “sign”.

What is the difference between a miracle and a sign? A sign is a miracle with meaning, pointing at something, and as was mentioned above, intended for enkindling faith. The sign has to be recognized and accepted. As we heard in today’s story of Lazarus, “many of the Jews who had come to Mary [Lazarus’s sister] and seen what he had done began to believe in him.” However, in the next passage we also read about something unbelievable: “some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done” and plotted against Jesus and Lazarus, even though they just witnessed a miracle. They did not recognize this amazing miracle as a sign.

This is a strong warning for us that even the greatest sign from God could be disregarded, wasted or even openly rejected.

The “sign” of the raising of Lazarus prepares us to understand well the meaning of the Lord’s passion. Jesus is the source of life, not only of this earthly one but of eternal life as well. The story leads us to the dialogue with Martha, the other sister of Lazarus, and to the culminating point of the revelation, which confers meaning of the sign: “I am the resurrection and the life”. This declaration of Jesus is followed by the ever-sounding question, “Do you believe this?”

Do you believe this?

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Prayer Before a Crucifix

*Look down upon me, good and gentle Jesus
while before your face I humbly kneel,
and with burning soul
pray and beseech you to fix deep in my heart
lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity;
true contrition for my sins,
and a firm purpose of amendment.
While I contemplate with great love and pity,
your five most precious wounds,
pondering over them within me,
I call to mind the words which David,
your prophet, said of you, my good Jesus:
"They have pierced my hands and my feet,
they have numbered all my bones." Amen*

What a wonderful celebration we had for the feast of St. Joseph on Sunday, March 19! We raised more than $2,108 for Caritas Poland to help the earthquake victims in Turkey and Syria. Thank you for your generous support.

Our heartfelt gratitude goes out to our pastor, Fr. Mark Jurzyk, for his support; our Council of Catholic Women (CCW) and President, Letty Dino; the Knights of Columbus and Grand Knight, Mark Jaczak - who provided St. Joseph prayer cards and the beautiful traveling icon; Assunta Zernone for her talent in baking all the beautiful breads; Mary Warick for donating the beautiful roses for the shrine in Marian Hall; Maria Johnson for donating the gorgeous flowers on the sanctuary in the church; Debbie & Mike Hartigan; Agata & Jack Baranski; John Zimny, our photographer.

We are so grateful to everyone who helped with their time and/or talent to decorate the shrine, to donate all the delicious food and desserts, and to those who made monetary donations to make this event a huge success. A big Thank You goes out to Mayor Frank Saverino for his unending support of our St. Joseph Table, and to everyone who obtained donations or purchased food from our local restaurants. Please patronize these generous and wonderful local restaurants: Addante's Pizza and Catering of Wheaton; McAlister's Deli, Bloomingdale; Villaggio Ristorante, Roselle; RoccoVino's, Carol Stream; Ewa's Polish Deli, Bloomingdale; Pietanza's, Bartlett.

St. Joseph, Spouse of the Mother of God, Pillar of Families, Terror of Demons, Protector of Holy Church, pray for us!

FIFTH SUNDAY OF Lent

MARCH 26, 2023

He cried out in a loud voice,
“Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:43

THE NEW LIFE TO COME

Death does not have the final say. This is the great mystery we ponder on this Fifth Sunday of Lent. Martha and Mary were good friends of Jesus. They did not hide their confusion and grief from the Lord; they voiced their conviction that if Jesus had been with them during their brother’s illness, he would not have died. Jesus entered into their grief and more—he overturned it. Lazarus’ death became the occasion for Jesus to show all who had gathered the mercy of God who cries out, “Oh my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them.” In this moment, the world was given a sign of the new life to come through Christ, the Risen One.

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

There really is no way around it. Eventually, we will grapple with the death of a loved one, a parent, sibling, spouse, or dear friend. As we mature, we also begin to come to terms with our own mortality. Our Sunday readings this Lent have invited our reflection on the big questions of life and faith. We have resolved to turn away from sin and toward God, listening to the Lord and responding with open minds and hearts. We have acknowledged and perhaps heightened our thirst for the Lord and have committed ourselves to walk in the light of God’s grace. Today, we journey from death to new life, reflecting on the mystery of Christ who is the resurrection and the life.

COME TO BELIEVE

Martha had a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. She spoke with him honestly, baring her heart to Jesus, openly expressing her confusion and sorrow at her brother’s death. Jesus’ response led Martha to a deep declaration of faith, “I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.” We, too, can have a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. We can speak honestly to the Lord, baring our hearts, expressing the truth of each moment of our lives, whether in joy or sorrow, happiness, grief, confusion, or times of fulfillment. In such honesty and trust, we may find deeper faith as well, coming to believe that Christ is our all, our way, truth, and life.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

Pilgrimage to the HOLY LAND and Poland

Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Caesarea-By-The Sea, Mount Tabor, Nazareth, Cana, Galilee, Jericho, Tiberias, Capernaum, Madaba, Ein Karem... and Warsaw, Cracow and more...

September 30 - October 12, 2023 (13 days)

$3,695

with Fr. Mark Kurzyk as Chaplain

Exclusive group of only 18 people!

Join us on pilgrimage to the Holy Land, with a couple days in Poland. Since our youth we have been hearing the Gospel stories about Jesus walking and teaching in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and Galilee. He worked miracles around the Sea of Tiberius, Jericho and Cana. He was born in Bethlehem, grew up in Nazareth and was crucified on Golgotha. We will experience these amazing places and much more. Our visit will give us the opportunity to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, our Blessed Mother and the first disciples. We will also visit Poland's (three days) royal cities of Warsaw and Cracow. We will explore a few places connected with St. John Paul II and St. Sister Faustina Kowalska – the apostle of Divine Mercy.

This will be a pilgrimage of a lifetime! It will forever change the way we read and understand the Scriptures and it will also have a profound impact on our spiritual life. Each day we will celebrate Mass and reflect on the biblical text corresponding to the place we visit. We hope you will be able to join us on what promises to be a grace-filled journey to the land from which has come our salvation.

The cost per person is $3,695 (double occupancy), which includes roundtrip airfare from Chicago, hotel accommodations, most meals and most museums fees.

For reservations or more information, please contact Elizabeth Mazur at 630-483-4673, ext. 105, or cmission77@gmail.com.

INCLUDED SERVICES: flight by plane, travel by air-conditioned coach, accommodation in hotels () in double rooms (single rooms extra charge), breakfast and dinner, sightseeing according to the program (the schedule may change slightly due to weather or unforeseen circumstances), cruise on the Sea of Galilee, taxi to Mount Tabor, services of guide and chaplain. Not included in the price: dinner drinks and tips.
