CCW
Council of Catholic Women

Corpus Christi Council of Catholic Women (CCW) Corner

Discover your friends with Corpus Christi!!!!

We invite all registered ladies of the parish to come and meet and have fun at our monthly meetings every first Thursday of the month. It is usually held in Marian Hall, from 6:45 PM to 8:30 PM. Our mission statement is to encourage leadership, service and spiritual growth among us as we raise funds to support our Church.

I believe that each of us is given a gift by our generous Lord to share. To you, it might not be extraordinary. It can only be yourself being there.

It can be your smile! Then be generous and share your joy and friendliness with the rest of us. We love to laugh and share jokes too!

Things overheard at our meetings:

Be a friend of St. Anthony. He can find things for you. Just ask.

St. Joan of Arc was told to cut her hair, dress in men's clothing and prepare to fight.

She won the battle for the King of France.

Realize that nobody cares if you have a zit.

Money is cheap or expensive.

How to win friends? Smile!!!

How to get along with old people?? Smile

Be grateful for little things like warm soup, toasted bread, no stains on your shirt.

Michael Jordan graduated with a degree in geography so he'd know where he was.

Martin Luther King Jr. said "I have a dream".

J.M. Power said if you want to make your dreams come true, the first thing to do is wake up.

Walt Disney said, the best way to get started is to quit talking and begin doing.

If you like sharing things like the above, come and join your CCW sisters.

Why Men join the Knights & Why their families are proud to call dad “A Knight of Columbus”

- We are a Catholic family, being a Knight just made sense as I’m “acting like a Knight” already
- I learned from talking to other Knights that it does not require a huge time commitment
- It made going to Church while on vacation easier as I reached out to a local Council where we were, and it gave us a connection to the community we were in for the 2 weeks
- The Knights have great resources and videos on their website that we now watch as a family
- The opportunities to volunteer are great and we can involve our entire family
- Networking for a job was not something I expected, but certainly was glad to be able to do so
- Raising money for good causes like the ID Drive and Vocations Raffle is very rewarding

Some “Knights In Action” shots from the past year – please come join us!

Learning about Mary's Titles with the Legion of Mary

Mary Star of the Sea

In Wikipedia, Stella Maris (Nostre) or Our Lady, Star of the Sea, was used to emphasize Mary's role as a guiding star for Christians. Writings from the 9th century said that Mary, Star of the Sea, was a “guide” to be followed on the way to Christ to avoid capsizing in storm-tossed waters.

The Catholic Encyclopedia mentions that this title of Mary originated from St. Jerome's fifth century translation of Eusebius of Caesarea's Onomasticon (dictionary of proper names) in which he translates Mary's name in Hebrew—Miryam, meaning drop of the sea—into the Latin Stilla Maris, which later became Stella Maris due to a dialect of the Latin peasants.

Our Lady who points us in the direction of Her Son, helping us navigate the sometimes-rough waters of this world and even our own passions. A drop in the ocean becomes the guide for the entire sea; an unknown girl through faith and generosity becoming the Mother of God. The title now also evoked to me God's exaltation of humility.

Saint Bernard of Clairvaux 12th century wrote :

If the winds of temptation arise; If you are driven upon the rocks of tribulation look to the star, call on Mary; If you are tossed upon the waves of pride, of ambition, of envy, of rivalry, look to the star, call on Mary. Should anger, or avarice, or fleshly desire violently assail the frail vessel of your soul, look at the star, call upon Mary.

The Feast Day of Mary Star of the Sea is celebrated on 31 May.

We invite you to become a registered parishioner of Corpus Christi, or to submit/update your contact information (for important church updates).
