November 26 2023 - Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Solemnity of
CHRIST THE KING

Where will you lead me, Lord, this year?

Sunday's celebration of the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, concludes the liturgical year. This past year we were led by St. Matthew, the Evangelist. According to the book of the Gospel written by him, we followed the story of Jesus, the Lord and Savior who leads us to the Kingdom of God. Chapter after chapter that we read during the Sunday Masses, we came to know Jesus - a true man, a true God - better and better. In the new liturgical year, the baton in the race for salvation is given to St. Mark. We will now hear His Gospel during the Sunday celebrations in most of 2024. So, we deeply thank St. Matthew for his assistance and are looking forward for a new guide and witness – St. Mark, who was an assistant of St. Peter, the Apostle.

This Sunday Jesus portrays with prophetic certainty His own glorious return at the end of time as Judge and King. Jesus becomes the Shepherd King who separates the sheep from the goats in the definitive act of the creation of the Kingdom. Those who allowed themselves to be “crucified” with Christ (separated by a mystical death and separated from their old selves) have put on the life of the risen Christ. They now have the capacity to enter the fullness of God's Kingdom, His love. Only Christ living within us can lead us into God's Heart and unite our life with God. On this journey to Him, God sets high standards while other gods can afford to be indulgent and innocuous. These gods can afford this because they are dead.

Jesus's judgment at the end of times will be final without a possibility for an appeal. The appeal option exists only during our earthly life. During this life we can appeal again and again, that is, we can repent again and again and convert ourselves to the Truth. Later, we can only show the account of our life to the Lord.

At the time of the Final Judgment at the end of human history, the Omnipotent King of Glory reveals himself shockingly to have previously existed in our midst as an anonymous and needy person: for I was hungry... Those who recognized Him in other people and acted with love and charity will hear consoling words that come out of the King's mouth: “Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!” This invitation reveals all the joy of the Heart of the King who finally sees the toil of all His work completed. Was this not what God intended from the very beginning of creation and throughout the long labor of redemption: to share with his creatures, from His freedom and generosity, the superabundant life of the Trinity? There is no more forceful way of expressing the extent to which God has ardently desired to share with us everything He is and everything He has.

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

November 2023 NOVENA OF GRACE

From November 25 through December 3, members of our diocese will have the opportunity to participate in a novena of prayer to St. Francis Xavier, our patron saint.

Day 1

“May our Lord increase the days of [your] life for many years, and may he grant you to feel, in this present life, his most holy will and the spiritual strength to fulfil it, so that you do and accomplish that which, at the hour of your death, you will wish to have done.”

*Letter to King John III of Portugal from Malacca in Malaysia
23rd June 1549*

Prayer

Lord, each day you give me new life, new graces, new opportunities to feel your presence. Give me the gift of attentiveness to notice you in the people and your creation which surround my life; that I may grow in faith, and hope, and love. Amen.

Knights of Columbus – Vocations Raffle

One of our annual mainstay fundraising events is Vocations Raffle. This yearly raffle is a state wide Knights of Columbus event that supports Seminarians all over our state including right here in our own Joliet Diocese. A portion of proceeds of this raffle also come right back to our Council directly and are used towards the many great causes that we support here in our Church and the Carol Stream community. This year, Vocations Support Raffle Tickets are available online. Get 15 chances into the December 3 drawings for a donation of $15. Simply use the QR code on this flyer and most importantly enter the number 10958 in the box marked “additional information” for our Council to get credit. We greatly and humbly appreciate all of your continued support to help us do the most for our communities.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of the universe, grant, we pray, that the whole creation, set free from slavery, may render your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim your praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen
