God's Rescue Mission

In the narthex of our church, you can see a beautiful and mysterious painting of the crucifixion of Jesus. It is a copy of a fresco (a painting on fresh plaster) from the lower Basilica of St. Francis in Assisi, Italy. The painting is a work of Giotto di Bondone, known as Giotto, a famous Italian painter who lived at the turn of the 13th and 14th centuries. For 17 years (1303-1320) he decorated the upper church dedicated to St. Francis of Assisi (1181-1226) with depictions of stories from the life of St. Francis. He also painted some parts of the lower church.

The painting presents two dramatic biblical scenes: Jesus' crucifixion (in the center) and Jesus' body having been taken down from the cross (on the bottom left). The fresco shows the drama of Jesus' death on the cross and the suffering of the people who loved him. We can easily identify them: Mary of Magdala is under the cross, St. John the Apostle stands on the left, and further, another Mary – the sister of Jesus' mother. In another scene we see Mary, the Mother of Jesus, dressed in black who, together with her sister, is caring for the body of Jesus.

On the right, we see two soldiers: one could be the centurion who said: "truly he was the Son of God" (Mark 15:39), the other one seems indifferent to the suffering of the Innocent. Further on the right, we see the Pharisees discussing something, possibly how they finally won over the "self-claimed" Messiah. Around Jesus on the cross are several angels: some are collecting the precious blood of Jesus that is flowing from his wounds; other ones, seeing what is happening, are crying; two others are seemingly despairing and turning to God the Father in a dramatic plea for help - to no avail. God seems to be silent but He is absolutely not indifferent. Jesus also is silent, not crying for help. He doesn't request help and he will not perform a miracle to rescue himself. Even when Jesus hears the bystanders mock him: "Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him" (Mt 27:42), he continues his mission. Why so? Because it was the only way to wipe out the world's iniquities and open the gate to heaven to a stray mankind. Jesus freely offered himself and the offering was accepted. God's rescue mission of the human race, of his children, has been completed.

Surprisingly, under the cross in the fresco Giotto also placed the Franciscan friars who lived in 13th century. By this, he wanted to show their authentic devotion to the Savior on the cross, to the "Love that is unloved" as St. Francis named Jesus. We see St. Francis on the right side of the cross as he is accompanied by another Franciscan friar and probably another saint from that order – St. Bonaventure.

May this beautiful work of Giotto help us to deepen our Lenten meditations on the great mystery of God's love toward us. He loved us to the very end and this end became the very beginning.

2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

The Legion of Mary Invites You to Welcome the Statue of Our Lady of Fatima into Your Home.

Corpus Christi's Legion of Mary invites parishioners to bring the Lady of Fatima statue into your homes for a week to encourage families, especially those with young children, to pray together. We will provide a prayer packet to help you. If you are interested, please contact the Parish Office at corpuschristicc@sbcglobal.net or leave a message at 312-237-6448. We will be glad to answer any questions or provide you with more details.

Our Lady of Fatima has already visited nearly 30 families in our Corpus Christi parish community since it began its journey from house to house in August of last year. The latest host to welcome the statue of Our Lady of Fatima into their home was Joe and Geri Bird.

Here are comments and observations from people who had Our Lady of Fatima's statue in their home:

"We loved having Mary visit us. She helped us through a very difficult week. Our dear brother-in-law died and we had a difficult week with the funeral and all that went with it. But Mary was there every day to help us. Mary will be welcomed to visit us always."

"Her visit was one of the best experiences. I felt her presence each day, moving me closer to her Son."

"Mary answered the prayers in my heart, as my husband joined me in praying the rosary and gave me the courage to speak."

"I would like to thank the Legion of Mary for bringing our Lady into our home. Our daughter and her 3 children came to join us to pray the rosary. It was beautiful to see and hear my 7-year-old grandson saying "Mary, the Lord is with me . . ." I loved it and didn't correct him because I know the Lord is with him as he said two decades of the rosary."

"Thank you, Our Lady of Fatima, for the visit. Praying the rosary daily with the whole family brought us closer to God and united hearts to the Blessed Virgin."

The Legion of Mary is a lay catholic organization whose members are giving service to the Church on a voluntary basis in almost every country. The goal of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work. Corpus Christi's Legion of Mary meets every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall. New members are always welcome. Contact Letty at ldino518@gmail.com for more information.

Learning about Mary's Titles with the Legion of Mary

Our Lady of Prompt Succor

Our Lady of Prompt Succor (which means assistance and support in times of hardship and distress.) is a Roman Catholic title of the Blessed Virgin Mary associated with a wooden devotional image of the Madonna and Child enshrined in New Orleans, Louisiana, United States of America. The image is closely associated with Mother Saint Michel, the Superior of the New Orleans Ursulines.

Pope Pius IX authorized the public devotion to the Marian title on 21 September 1851 and designated the 8th of January as its feast day of thanksgiving. Pope Leo XIII granted a Pontifical decree of Canonical Coronation to the image on 21 June 1894. The rite of coronation was executed by Archbishop Francis Janssens y August on 10 November 1895.

The image is also known by its connection to President Andrew Jackson who was present before the image during and after the Battle of New Orleans against the British invasion. Under this Marian title, the Virgin Mary is designated as the Principal Patroness of Louisiana and the Archdiocese of New Orleans dating from a 13 June 1928 Papal bull from the Sacred Congregation of Rites. The image is presently enshrined at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor while her feast day is celebrated on 8 January.
