Entering Holy Week with Jesus

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, also called Palm Sunday, represents the gate through which we enter Holy Week (also called Great Week). This is a time in which we contemplate the last moments of the life of Jesus. We recall Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem, welcomed by a festive crowd, and then we recall his Passion. The tradition of having a procession with palms on this Sunday reaches back to the year 400.

This liturgy is entirely characterized by the theme of Jesus's Passion. This is true particularly regarding the Gospel texts (this year according to St. Mark) which present the Passion narrative. The first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (described as the Song of the Suffering Servant, Isaiah 50) is followed by a prayer from Psalm 22 with the refrain "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" These are the same exact words that Jesus invoked in his agony on the cross. Jesus began quoting the first verse of this psalm because he probably was not able to finish the remaining parts of it due to his pain and exhaustion. The following verses of this psalm, however, express full trust in God. Yes, Jesus was not abandoned; He was in continuous union with His Father in heaven. The terror that Jesus bore in obeying the Father "to the point of death, even death on a cross" is attested to in the Second Reading from the Letter to the Philippians. However, Holy Week is not so much the celebration of "grief" and "lament", as much as it is a week that expresses the "heart" of the Paschal Mystery when Jesus gave his life for our salvation. Jesus became man because he loves us, and because of love, he gave his life. It is through this obedience that Jesus loves the Father and loves the men and women He came to save.

On Palm Sunday, we are offered an interpretation of our life and destiny. All our sufferings and grief find a response in Jesus. In the face of every question regarding why there is suffering, why there is death, why there are so many choices that are incomprehensible to the human mind, Jesus does not give us vague responses. With his life, he has told us that He is with us, at our side --until the end. We will never be alone – neither in our joys nor in our sufferings. Jesus is with us. It is a celebration that is understood through silence and prayer rather than through words, so as to enter into it with the heart.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Holy Week serve both as an opportunity for continued reflection upon the Passion narrative read on Palm Sunday and as a time to anticipate what is to come. The remaining days of the Holy Week: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, are named Holy Triduum (Holy Three Days). These are days when the entire Church celebrates the culmination of the salvific action of our Lord: the establishing of the Eucharist (and priesthood), his Passion and death on the cross, His being in the grave, and his resurrection. I invite you to join us for the liturgies of these holy days, if you can, as they help us to celebrate with faith and joy his resurrection, the event that opened the gates of heaven to us.

In Christ,
Fr. Mark Jurzyk

THE CHOSEN

"Are you a fan of The Chosen Gospel series? Have you seen seasons 1-3? Are you anxiously awaiting Season 4? Well, your wait is over. Corpus Christi is bringing Season 4, Episode 2 to the "big screen" on Wednesday March 27, at 6:30 PM in Marian Hall. Group discussions about the episode will follow.

Come and See what all the excitement is all about.

Why are the crosses and sacred images veiled in purple?

Palm Sunday ushers in the final week of Lent, called Holy Week. Holy Week is characterized by a heightened celebration of Lent as Easter approaches. During this period the faithful redouble their Lenten penances. It is also customary to shroud all the sacred images in the churches with purple cloths, save the Stations of the Cross. On Good Friday the crucifixes are unveiled, while the other sacred images are unveiled on the afternoon of Holy Saturday in preparation for the Easter Vigil. This imagery calls to mind how Christ hid his Divinity during his Passion and death, no longer performing miracles until his Resurrection from the dead. Likewise, the holy images are veiled in imitation of their Lord, their glory being unveiled with the joy of the celebration of Easter.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Christian year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

The Legion of Mary Invites You to Welcome the Statue of Our Lady of Fatima into Your Home.

Corpus Christi's Legion of Mary invites parishioners to bring the Lady of Fatima statue into your homes for a week to encourage families, especially those with young children, to pray together. We will provide a prayer packet to help you. If you are interested, please contact the Parish Office at corpuschristicc@sbcglobal.net or leave a message at 312-237-6448. We will be glad to answer any questions or provide you with more details.

Our Lady of Fatima has already visited nearly 30 families in our Corpus Christi parish community since it began its journey from house to house in August of last year. The latest host to welcome the statue of Our Lady of Fatima into their home was Joe and Geri Bird.

Here are comments and observations from people who had Our Lady of Fatima's statue in their home:

"Her visit was one of the best experiences. I felt her presence each day, moving me closer to her Son."

"Mary answered the prayers in my heart, as my husband joined me in praying the rosary and gave me the courage to speak."

"I would like to thank the Legion of Mary for bringing our Lady into our home. Our daughter and her 3 children came to join us to pray the rosary. It was beautiful to see and hear my 7-year-old grandson saying "Mary, the Lord is with me . . ." I loved it and didn't correct him because I know the Lord is with him as he said two decades of the rosary."

"Thank you, Our Lady of Fatima, for the visit. Praying the rosary daily with the whole family brought us closer to God and united hearts to the Blessed Virgin."

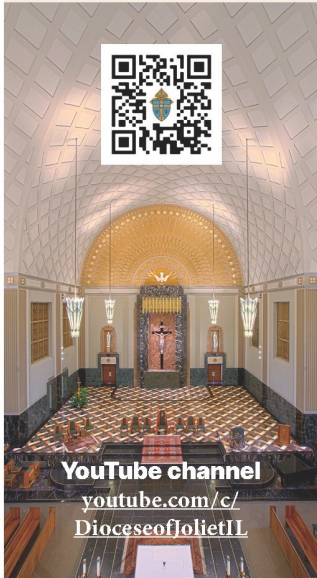

The Legion of Mary is a lay catholic organization whose members are giving service to the Church on a voluntary basis in almost every country. The goal of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work. Corpus Christi's Legion of Mary meets every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall. New members are always welcome. Contact Letty at ldino518@gmail.com for more information.
