The Pastor's Corner...

Prepare Our Hearts for Christmas

This Sunday we enter the rich and beautiful liturgical season of Advent. It is made beautiful by lights, colors, and music. Like the time of a marriage engagement, Advent is a time of joyful waiting and expecting and not the wedding celebration itself --Not yet. In the first part of Advent until December 16, the liturgical readings and the entire liturgy place our attention on the second coming of Jesus at the end of time and the necessary element for this moment: preparation for the conversion of the heart. The patrons of this first period are John the Baptist "proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins," (Lk 3:3) and the prophet Isaiah calling us to "prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths" (Is 40:3).

From December 17 until Christmas, the accent changes and we meditate about the historical coming of the Savior of the world, the Messiah -- Jesus Christ. So, during this time we hear the stories of the Annunciation, Visitation and the prophecies regarding the child who will save the human race. All the people involved in this are amazed how God enters the realm of humanity with His saving power: Mary, Joseph, Elizabeth -- the mother of John the Baptist, her husband Zechariah and others, not mentioned by name in the Gospel, but who witnessed what was happening.

These are stories of the beginning of the fullness of time when God entered with His grace into the life of the human race. Through the teaching and offering of His Son, God revealed fully and ultimately who He is and what is our vocation. He cast the light on the earth: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; Upon those who lived in a land of gloom a light has shone" (Is 9:1). By his coming, Jesus is a lantern that enlightens the road or a lighthouse that shows the sailor the safe harbor.

Brothers and Sisters, let's take advantage of this special season by meditating on these biblical events and reflecting on our life in light of these events and teaching of the Church. May Mary, St. Joseph, St. John the Baptist and other saints assist us in our Advent journey.

In Christ,

Fr. Mark Jurzyk

Advent is here. If you or your family would like to light the candles on our parish's Advent wreath at the beginning of Mass, please sign up in the narthex.

We Welcome our Newly Baptized Members of Corpus Christi Parish

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." ~ Mt 28:19-20

Blessing of an Advent Wreath

(Adapted from Magnificat)

The use of the Advent Wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the home. The blessing of an Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent or on the evening before the First Sunday of Advent or on the evening before the First Sunday of Advent.

Customarily the Advent Wreath is constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which are inserted four candles. According to Tradition, three candles are violet and the fourth is rose. However, four violet or white candles may be used.

The candles represent the four weeks of Advent, and the number of candles lighted each week corresponds to the number of the current week of Advent. The rose candle is lighted on the Third Sunday of Advent, also known as Gaudete (Rejoice) Sunday.

When the blessing of the Advent Wreath is celebrated in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another member of the family.

All make the sign of the cross.

The leader says:

Lord our God, We praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: He is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, He is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, He is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God, Let your blessing come upon us As we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light Be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen. We pray together: Our Father...

This Advent, join Fr. Mike Schmitz in a journey through the daily readings as he confronts our doubts and reveals God's love with app-exclusive daily video reflections and scripture passages. Discover who God is, who we are, and how we are made worthy to stand in his presence.

What if you knew that December 25th Christmas Day was the day that you were going to die? The way we live Advent would have to change. We'd have to live with intentionality. We'd have to live it with purpose. We'd have to live it with grace. Too often, we live life by "default". We forget that we are on a journey to an eternal destination of joy that we were made for. We are burdened by fears and questions: what if I am not worthy? What if I am not enough?

It is an association of lay Catholics through Corpus Christi Pastor Father Mark Jurzyk, and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, Mediatrix of all Graces, who is fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in battle array, formed themselves into service in the spiritual warfare against the world and its evil powers to bring everyone to her beloved Son, Jesus. We meet every Wednesday at 7 pm in Marian Hall.

COMMEMORATING 75 YEARS OF CATECHESIS,
EVANGELIZATION AND SERVICE

Novena of Grace with St. Francis Xavier

From November 25 through December 3, members of our diocese will have the opportunity to participate in a nine-day novena of prayer to St. Francis Xavier, the patron of the Diocese of Joliet.

DAY 1 NOVEMBER 25

Lord, each day you give me new life, new graces, new opportunities to feel your presence. Give me the gift of attentiveness to notice you in the people and your creation which surround my life; that I may grow in faith, and hope, and love. Amen.

DAY 2 NOVEMBER 26

Father, each day you show me the love of a parent for its child: watchful of my every step, eager for me to thrive; you delight in my happiness and console me in my sadness. May the constant love in which you enfold me give me the confidence to show that same love to friend and foe, family and stranger, alike. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 3 NOVEMBER 27

Father, you speak to me in the silence and in the empty spaces of my life. Give me ears to hear your voice in stillness and in the gentle breeze; eyes to see your presence in things that seem so insignificant at the time. Free me from the relentless whirl of activity, from the obsessions which limit me and snatch away my freedom to answer your call. Like St Francis, may I too become a pilgrim, called to walk the path you set before me, wherever it may lead but always safe in the knowledge that Christ walks beside me unseen. Amen.

DAY 4 NOVEMBER 28

Lord, before I ever came into being you knew me and loved me. You have knit me together the way I am, and given me life and laughter, friends and the faces of kind strangers, and a world of wonder and new discovery. Grant me the freedom and the courage to discover you anew each day in the people I meet, in the places I go, in the sounds I hear and the things I see. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 5 NOVEMBER 29

Lord Jesus, it is so easy to be tempted as you were tempted in the desert; to make poor decisions for quick gains and satisfaction; to turn the wonderful gifts of your generosity towards unworthy and selfish ends. Give me, day by day, the same Spirit of strength with which you faced down those desert temptations of power, wealth and honour; that my desires and motives, my words and actions, may always be for the greater glory of God, my Lord. Amen.

DAY 6 NOVEMBER 30

Father, as I look back on this day, there are so many teeming thoughts, such a babble of words, and such a blur of activity, that it is difficult to see your gentle and faithful presence amid it all. Show yourself to me today, and every day. Amen.

DAY 7 DECEMBER 1

God our Father, praise to you! I am surrounded by so many good people, if only I take the time to notice: people who speak your word of compassion and kindness; people who act to give reality to your justice and reconciliation; people whose lives are good seed growing in rich soil. Give me, too, the grace to live in your Spirit, and to be your presence for those I meet as I go about the business of my day. Amen.

DAY 8 DECEMBER 2

Father, you are entire goodness and you are goodness for me. Creator of all things, who hold all things in being for me, give me faith in you and in myself, your creation. Amen.

DAY 9 DECEMBER 3

God our Father, as St Francis Xavier travelled to the ends of the earth, impelled by love of Christ and afire with his good news, give me the trust and the grace to base all that I do entirely on you, safe in the knowledge that you raise up the lowly and fill them with good things. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
