Let's Adore the Newborn Savior

The painting on the wall in the narthex of our church, Adoration of the Magi, is regarded as the finest work of Gentile da Fabriano. It was created for the Church of the Holy Trinity in Florence, Italy, in the year 1423. Presently it is being held in the famous Uffizi Gallery in Florence. I am very fortunate to have visited this gallery twice. In his painting, the artist created a dynamic visual narrative of the journey of the Magi to Bethlehem recounted in the Gospel of Matthew. The painting uses continuous narrative to show us the moment the Magi first see the star announcing Jesus' birth, their journey to Jerusalem, and then subsequent arrival in Bethlehem where they meet the infant Jesus. In this reproduction, which is displayed on our church narthex wall, only the last story of the painting is fully visible.

Let's look at some of the details of the Fabriano image. It seems that the Magi take turns kneeling before Jesus and presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The oldest Magi, Melchior, is kissing Jesus' foot as Jesus blesses him. The other two Magi, Caspar and Balthazar, prepare to do the same, holding their gifts aloft. All three Magi are elaborately dressed, and each one has a golden crown.

The halos around Mary and Joseph are brilliant gold, emphasizing their holiness. The halos also include what appears to be Arabic writing that is not visible in our reproduction. This, and the fact that multiple figures in the painting wear turbans, indicates someone of Middle Eastern descent.

Magi wear very rich garments: elaborate brocades, damasks, other silks, and velvets. Melchior wears a patterned garment of pearlescent white with golden accents, and above that, a mantle accented with gold and silver. Caspar wears a long tunic in black decorated with golden pomegranates. The pomegranate was a prominent Christian symbol of rebirth. Balthazar's outfit is similarly elaborate. His abdomen is covered in golden designs that almost mimic peacock feathers. The peacock is a symbol of resurrection which dates back to antiquity.

One can be surprised that the artist placed an exotic menagerie into the riotous scene: two monkeys sit atop a camel, a lion eyeing two birds, and among the tightly packed group of men there is a leopard or possibly a cheetah. The horses are likely Arabian, and, along with the camel, are pointing at the eastern origin of the Magi.

All these elements of the painting express brilliantly and suggestively the main religious message of the Florentine painting: The Magi and other people present there, and even the animals – the entire splendor and wisdom of the world – arrive to give homage to the Newborn Jesus. They show their utmost respect and admiration to the One because He came to rescue all people from death, to open for them the way to salvation – that is the way to eternal life. Only He, and nobody else in the entire universe, is able to do this. So, it is obvious, that the wealth of the world is nothing in comparison with such a Newborn host who gives hope to the descendants of Adam and Eve, to mankind. The attitude of the Magi – searching diligently for the truth and persistently following what they discovered – reminds us of a merchant from Jesus' parable who was “looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.” (Mt 13:45-46)

On the Feast of Epiphany – the Revelation of the Savior to all people in the world – let's join the Magi and others in our worship and praise of the Lord who came in poverty to teach us the real value of all things and the real value of our life.

In Christ,
Fr. Mark Jurzyk

AN EPIPHANY BLESSING FOR THE HOME

This short liturgy is a way of marking our homes, usually at the main entrance, with sacred signs and symbols as we ask God's blessing upon those who live, work, or visit throughout the coming year. Although the service is intended for use in home dwellings like apartments, condos, houses, and college dorms, it is certainly appropriate when adapted for use in offices, places of business, nursing homes, hospital rooms, and extended-care facilities. On the Twelfth-Night after Christmas, many families gather in their homes to celebrate this Epiphany feast with friends, food, singing, and gifts. It is at these Twelfth-Night celebrations that "Chalking the Door" with this blessing is most often observed.

ONE: The Lord be with you;

ALL: And also with you.

ONE: Peace be to this house!

ALL: And to all who live here!

ONE: Let us pray.

O God, you once used a star to show to all the world that Jesus is your Son. May the light of that star that once guided wise men to his birth, now guide us to recognize him in the epiphanies of the daily experiences of our lives. As we go about our work, our study, our play, keep us in its light and in your love. May all who enter here find your gracious hospitality, for Christ has come to dwell in this house and in these hearts.

ALL: May Christ bless our home! Amen.

(Each person present can take turns writing the following blessing over the doorway of the house with chalk)

20 + C + M + B + 25

(The letters have two meanings. They are the initials of the customary names of the Three Magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. They also abbreviate the Latin words "Christus Mansionem Benedicat", "May Christ bless the house". The year is divided before and after the these letters. The crosses (+) represent the protection of the Christ.)

Your Urgent Email/Phone Call is Needed Now!

Contact your state senator and representative to Oppose to Senate Bill 3499, a piece of legislation that seeks to legalize assisted suicide in Illinois during the Lam Duck session, beginning January 2 to January 8, when the 104th General Assembly is sworn into office. Click the following link to contact your lawmaker and tell them to OPPOSE this bill. https:// www.ilcatholic.org/take-action/action-center/

STOP ASSISTED SUICIDE IN ILLINOIS - ADD YOUR VOICE TO THE OPPOSITION

In keeping with our faith traditions, legalizing assisted suicide goes against the Church's teachings on the sanctity and dignity of human life. It undermines the value of each human person, particularly those who are vulnerable.

Laws permitting assisted suicide pose significant risks to the poor, marginalized, and disabled, who may face pressure to end their lives rather than receive the care and compassion they need and deserve. There are documented cases from states where assisted suicide has been legalized, where individuals with rare or life-threatening conditions were denied necessary medical treatment and were instead offered life-ending prescriptions.

Illinois does not need to legalize assisted suicide. What we truly need is increased access to quality health care, enhanced palliative care options, and loving and compassionate support services for those at the end of their life. These are the alternatives that uphold the dignity of every person.
